Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and He turned and addressed them, "Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.' In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be My disciple."

(Luke 14:25, 28-30, 33)

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "...just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life." For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. (John 3:14-15, 17)

Jesus said to His disciples: "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones.

If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? No servant can serve two masters. You cannot serve both God and mammon." (Luke 16:10-11, 13)

Jesus said to the Pharisees: "There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham." (Luke 16:19-22)
