✠ Liturgy of the Word ✠

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. Lord, send out your Spir - it, and re - new the face of the earth.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Sequence

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.

Processional Hymn

Come, Holy Ghost

1. Come, Ho - ly Ghost, Cre - a - tor blest,
2. O Com - fort - er, to thee we cry,
3. To ev - 'ry sense thy light im - part
4. O grant that we through thee may come
5. Praise be to thee, Fa - ther and Son

1. And in our hearts take up thy rest;
2. Thou heav'n - ly gift of God most high;
3. And shed thy love in ev - 'ry heart.
4. To know the Fa - ther and the Son,
5. And Ho - ly Spir - it, with them one;

1. Come with thy grace and heav'n - ly aid
2. Thou font of life, and fire of love,
3. To our weak flesh, thy strength sup - ply;
4. And hold with firm, un - chang - ing faith,
5. And may the Son on us be - stow

1. To fill the hearts which thou hast made,
2. And sweet a - noint - ing from a - bove,
3. Un - fail - ing cour - age from on high,
4. That thou art Spir - it of them both,
5. The gifts that from the Spir - it flow,

1. To fill the hearts which thou hast made.
2. And sweet a - noint - ing from a - bove.
3. Un - fail - ing cour - age from on high.
4. That thou art Spir - it of them both.
5. The gifts that from the Spir - it flow.

You, of comforters the best;
 You, the soul's most welcome guest;
 Sweet refreshment here below;

In our labor, rest most sweet;
 Grateful coolness in the heat;
 Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,
 Shine within these hearts of yours,
 And our inmost being fill!

Where you are not, we have naught,
 Nothing good in deed or thought,
 Nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
 On our dryness pour your dew;
 Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;
 Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
 Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore
 And confess you, evermore
 In your sevenfold gift descend;

Give them virtue's sure reward;
 Give them your salvation, Lord;
 Give them joys that never end. Amen.
 Alleluia.

Gospel

John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.
Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.
Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy.
Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.
Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

Memorial Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,

With a sober heart, we come before You this Memorial Day. We pause for a moment and call to mind all the men and women who have died in the service of our nation.

Please look with mercy on our brave and selfless brothers and sisters, who did not shirk from their task but gave themselves completely to the cause of defending and protecting us all. Bless all who have given their lives for the sake of liberty and grant them eternal rest with You.

We remember also our brave men and women now serving in our Armed Forces, both at home and abroad. Dear God, send out Your angels to protect them all. Help them discharge their duties honorably and well. Please bring them safely home to their families and loved ones. Bring Your peace and mercy to our troubled world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.
