✠ Liturgy of the Word ✠

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim Offer your thankful praises!

A Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless, Reconciles sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who dies, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring.

"The tomb of Christ, who is living, The glory of Jesus' resurrection;

Bright angels, attesting, The shroud and napkin resting.

Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; To Galilee He goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

Gospel

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Meditation

Christ is Risen

Maher

Verse 1

Let no one caught in sin remain
 Inside the lie of inward shame
 But fix our eyes upon the cross
 And run to Him who showed great love
 And bled for us
 Freely You've bled for us

Chorus

Christ is risen from the dead
 Trampling over death by death
 Come awake come awake
 Come and rise up from the grave
 Christ is risen from the dead
 We are one with Him again
 Come awake come awake
 Come and rise up from the grave

Verse 2

Beneath the weight of all our sin
 You bowed to none but heaven's will
 No scheme of hell no scoffer's crown
 No burden great can hold You down
 In strength You reign
 Forever let Your church proclaim

Bridge

O death where is your sting
 O hell where is your victory
 O church come stand in the light
 The glory of God has defeated the night
 Singing O death where is your sting
 O hell where is your victory
 O church come stand in the light
 Our God is not dead He's alive He's alive
