Easter 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During The Easter Season, I reflect on how blessed we are as followers of Christ to live in a diocese that has been given abundant blessings. Our Risen Lord invites us to take those blessings and walk in newness of life as his sons and daughters, each and every day.

As we celebrate our 50th anniversary as a diocese, we are renewed in the joyful hope of witnessing and celebrating our Lord’s resurrection. Now strengthened in this hope-filled faith, we can better respond to his call to witness to the Risen Lord with greater authenticity, to follow his commands, and willingly proclaim our faith and the truth of the Gospel boldly and lovingly.

By relying on God and trusting in his grace, may we strive daily to live in Christ Jesus, who rose from the dead, bringing a message of new life in him. Jesus Christ is risen today; he is victorious, and his victory is ours. For this reason, we sing ‘Alleluia! Alleluia!’

Please be assured of a special remembrance in my prayers for you and your family. May our risen Lord shower his abundant blessings upon you at Easter and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
 Bishop of Arlington

The Parish Office will be closed all day on Sunday, March 31st and Monday, April 1st

2024 Bishop's Lenten Appeal
 “Behold, I make all things new”

Thank you, Nativity parishioners, for your continuing strong support for this year’s Bishop’s Lenten Appeal. As of March 21, our pledges and donations amount to $669,477 but with only about 15 percent of registered families pledging. If you have not yet participated, Easter is the perfect time to make a sacrificial offering at any amount that works for you and your family. See www.arlingtondiocese.org/BLA or just scan the QR code for easy access. Your support helps so many charities, ministries, and programs. Thank you!

Join us in praying the Divine Mercy Novena leading up to Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7th

The Second Sunday of Easter, April 7th, is the Feast of Divine Mercy, or Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Divine Mercy Novena is prayed nine days prior to Divine Mercy Sunday, it started on Good Friday, March 29th. The Novena will be prayed daily after the morning Mass or Morning Prayer Service, except on the Easter weekend, when the Novena prayers are said at home (check schedule).

“I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw there from strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death” (Diary, 1209).

The Holy Hour and Devotion on Sunday, April 7th is from 2:45 to 3:45 pm. Please join us in Eucharistic Adoration and in praying/singing the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. Prayer cards, rosaries and information pamphlets will be provided. “Jesus I trust in You!” See the Nativity website for more information. Divine Mercy Adoration & Chaplet will be livestreamed.

National Eucharistic Congress
Indianapolis, Indiana
from July 17-21, 2024

The Holy Spirit, through our shepherds, is calling the whole Catholic Church together in a way we have not seen in 83 years. This summer, we will all gather in Indianapolis from July 17 to 21 for an event different from anything you've experienced before. More than just a retreat or conference, the National Eucharistic Congress is the Church's moment—a moment that will define a whole generation of Catholics. All Congress attendees will gather together in Lucas Oil Stadium for a powerful general session each day, where we will experience the revival Our Lord desires to accomplish. These transformative moments will be led by the world-class speakers, including Montse Alvarado, Sister Miriam James Heidland, Fr. Josh Johnson, Bishop Robert Barron, Bishop Andrew Cozzens, Mother Adela Galindo, Sr. Josephine Garrett, Fr. Boniface Hicks, Sr. Bethany Madonna, Matt Maher, Mother Olga of the Sacred Heart, Cardinal Christopher Pierre, Gloria Purvis, Fr. Mike Schmitz, Chris Stefanick, and so many more. See the full list of Eucharistic Congress speakers. We firmly believe God is calling us together for a new Pentecost and that Jesus is about to unleash the fire of his love upon our nation. Members of our parish family who make the trip will bring this holy fire back home and set our faith community ablaze! Whether you can come for all five days or only one, we hope you can join us at the National Eucharistic Congress! Get your pass at EucharisticCongress.org. And if you can't make Indianapolis this summer, then consider participating in the Eucharistic Pilgrimage that's heading there! In keeping with this vision, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will accompany Jesus from city to city, lighting hearts on fire along the way. When they meet at the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, all these flames will blaze together. The Seton Route will go through Washington DC, stopping overnight at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. You can join the procession or just stop by to visit Our Eucharistic Lord on June 8th and 9th. Explore the interactive map to follow the four routes across the United States and register for one of the many free events coming to our area.

A Message from the Nativity Creation Care Ministry

Our celebration of the resurrection enlivens our hope, as we celebrate life transformed from death. When it comes to the fate of our planet, it can be easy to fall into despair. An Easter practice might then be to ask ourselves, inspired by a question posed by marine biologist Ayana Elizabeth Johnson, "What if we got this right?" What if we got right our ideas and work about how to care for creation correct? What might our world look like? Can we allow ourselves to be moved from a place of possibility, trusting in God's grace? This Easter Season, let us cultivate an Easter imagination – one that sees from the lens of hope instead of despair – that we might help bring resurrection joy to all beings on God's planet. Have a Blessed Easter!

Join us April 11 at 6:30 pm in the Father Martin Center for "Kids In Today's Society" presented by MPO Tony Capizzi and PFC Liam May with Fairfax County Police Department. We welcome PARENTS of Nativity School students and parishioners. MPO Capizzi and PFC May will discuss current trends in social media, narcotics, and mental health concerns in the teen population. The class provides guidance for parents to talk to their children and find resources if their kids are dealing with any of these challenges. They will also bring items that demonstrate what kids use to conceal their contraband and show off what some of the contraband looks like. It is important to note that this presentation is for PARENTS only.

Tough Topic Series - Responding in love to challenging Gender Identity and Same-Sex Attraction cultural issues – April 5th and April 13th

Are you unsure of what to say when confronted by a tough topic? Do you want to be accepting and loving of everyone but aren't sure how? Want to know what the Church says about some of the most difficult social issues of our day?

Join us where we learn to speak the truth in love on the remaining 2024 Tough Topics sessions from 6:00-9:00pm at St. John the Beloved Catholic Church in the parish hall, 6420 Linway Terrace, McLean, VA 22101.

Each night will feature dinner, video presentation, and role-playing potential real-life conversations about each issue:
Friday, April 5th: Same-Sex Attraction
Saturday, April 13th: Gender Identity

Tough Topics (www.toughtopics.life) is designed to help 7th-12th graders. The videos and role-playing scenarios included are something that has been sorely needed to help educate the minds and form teenage hearts as today's increasingly toxic culture presses down hard against our families and their children. It is endorsed by our Diocese and has received excellent reviews. These particular sessions are for teenagers with parents encouraged to attend as observers. Youth leaders from any parish are welcome to observe, 7th and 8th graders are required to bring their parents. Contact Michael Jacobeen to RSVP at mjacobeen@stjohncatholicmclean.org or (703) 356-5275.

The Knights of Columbus of the Fr. Sikora Council would like to thank all parishioners who attended our St. Patrick's Day Dinner Dance Celebration on 16 March. It was a fun event, made all the more so by your presence! It was also a successful fundraiser where we raised over $3500 that we will use to support the Nativity Youth Ministry, Nativity School Scholarships, the Cyr Scholarship program for Catholic high school students, and other worthy causes.

Mary Magdalene, Peter, and John accompanied Jesus on his final mission and were key witnesses to his inspirational teachings, astonishing miracles, traumatic suffering, and excruciating death on the cross. They were three of Jesus' most intimate friends and, besides his mother, they seemed to know him the best.

We see in Scripture how Jesus tried to prepare those he loved for what was going to happen. Still, on that Easter morning when first confronted with the empty tomb, their human weakness and broken hearts gave way to sadness, suspicion, and fear. It would take them a little while before they would fully understand that Jesus had to rise from the dead through the saving power of God and then Scripture would be fulfilled.

When we love Jesus with all our hearts and are sincerely trying to follow him, we must trust him and the Holy Spirit to help us be patient and guide our understanding of things we don't quite understand so we can stay in line with God's holy will for our lives.

Is life giving you challenges? Are people in your life disappointing you or has grief, pain, illness, or other misfortune come your way somehow? Everyone has crosses we must bear at different seasons of our lives, and we are called to carry them with faith and trust even when we don't understand everything just yet.

We are also called to love others and share our faith with them as well. Sometimes it is our very crosses that connect us to the people to whom we are being led to share the Gospel of Christ! By holding intimately close to Jesus and trusting him, just as his closest disciples did in today's Gospel, we show what it means to be "Easter people." We know that God will turn our hurts and sacrifices into something beautiful in time and we, too, will rise.

Reflect & Discuss:

- † How can you share the love of Christ by helping someone you know carry their cross?
- † What can you do to allow Christ to carry more of the load of your cross? Can you recognize when Christ is working through others to help carry your cross?
- † When something bad in your life turned out good, how did this affect your faith in God? How have you experienced a time when you saw and believed as the disciple John did?
- † Think about a time when you prayed, and things did not go as you wanted. As God always brings something good out of bad for those who believe and have faith, what good things did you discover?

¡HAS PODIDO, SEÑOR!Domingo de Pascua

Javier Leoz

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección creyentes en Cristo muerto y resucitado!

¡Feliz Pascua hinchas de un Jesús que, vencedor, nos trae el trofeo de vida para todos!

Respondamos, desde el graderío de nuestra Iglesia, con cánticos, aleluyas, sonrisas y júbilo, optimismo e ilusión, fe y esperanza: ¡HA RESUCITADO! ¡HA TRIUNFADO!

1) Estamos en Pascua. Ahora sí; este es el zumo del fruto que se exprimió ante el silencio de unos, complacencia de otros, la complicidad de unos o la cobardía de otros. Cristo, muerto en el madero, nos gana a todos y nos catapulta en una vida sin término. ¿Caemos en la cuenta de tan gran Misterio? Que, nuestra fe, no es una fe de muertos ni en la muerte. Que, nuestra fe, está coronada por el triunfo de un Cristo que al resucitar nos inyecta, ahora más que nunca, una infusión de vida eterna. Estamos llamados a eso: a la vida. Estamos llamados a despertar de este mundo, que aún pareciéndonos un sueño, es algo pasajero y nada comparable con la realidad del cielo.

Hoy, en esta mañana florecida por la luz de Cristo, apostamos fuerte por Aquel que nos lo ha dado todo. Hoy, en estas horas refulgentes y celestes, levantamos también nuestra victoria: ¡Cristo es nuestro futuro! Ahora, aunque lloremos, sabemos que nuestro llanto no será definitivo. Ahora, aunque la muerte siga sorprendiéndonos, sabemos que es un traje de quita y pon. Ahora, aunque la prueba nos sobrecoja, sabemos que no será la que tenga la última palabra. ¡Dichosa mañana de resurrección que nos trae tan gran noticia!

2. Esta noticia es la que sostiene nuestra vida cristiana. Y, esta crónica resucitadora, es la que se ha de sostener en nuestra memoria hoy y siempre. No estamos llamados a la muerte sino a la vida. Nuestra fe, por si lo olvidamos, es triunfante y no derrotista. Tiene futuro, no se queda en el presente. Mientras tanto, ante un Cristo que nos sorprende con una fuerza arrolladora que viene del Padre, damos gracias por haberle encontrado. Le damos las gracias por habernos hecho de los suyos a pesar de nuestras negaciones, traiciones, mediocridades y deserciones.

No olvidemos que, la salvación que Jesús nos ha traído, ha sido precisamente para los que creemos que la necesitamos. Para todo aquel que, humildemente, pone en Dios su esperanza, en la cruz sus ojos y en la resurrección su horizonte. Tal vez por eso, muchos hoy, seguirán sin escuchar este mensaje pascual: están tan sumidos en sus pequeñas resurrecciones (gotas de vida que pronto se evaporan) que no ven la necesidad de alzar sus ojos hacia aquella otra vida resucitada y resucitadora que les ofrece el mensaje pascual.

Tal vez por eso, porque algunos son felices viendo como los topes (bajo lo placentero de la tierra) no se preocupan de exponer su piel, sus sentimientos y su corazón ante la luz que nos trae el Evangelio de un Jesús que muere y nos invita a resucitar de esta tierra que, a veces, nos mata.

¡FELIZ PASCUA DE RESURRECCIÓN, HERMANOS!

Dirijamos nuestros ojos, nuestro pensamiento, nuestro corazón y todo nuestro ser hacia el cielo y, todos juntos, proclamemos y cantemos y ensalcemos el poder de nuestro Dios:

¡LO HAS RESUCITADO, SEÑOR! ¡NOS HAS RESUCITADO A TODOS!

Que el grito, que desde hace veinte siglos decimos los cristianos ¡Resucitó! ¡Aleluya, aleluya!, siga cruzando fronteras y continentes. Pero, sobre todo, que nosotros vivamos y estemos convencidos de la presencia del Señor resucitada y resucitadora.

Pascua 2024

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Durante este Tiempo de Pascua, reflexiono sobre lo bendecidos que somos como seguidores de Cristo por vivir en una diócesis a la que se le han concedido abundantes bendiciones. Nuestro Señor Resucitado nos invita a tomar esas bendiciones y caminar en una vida nueva como sus hijos e hijas, día tras día.

Al celebrar nuestro aniversario no. 50 como diócesis, nos renovamos en la gozosa esperanza de ser testigos y celebrar la resurrección de nuestro Señor. Ahora, fortalecidos en esta fe llena de esperanza, podemos responder mejor a su llamado a dar testimonio del Señor resucitado con mayor autenticidad, a seguir sus mandatos y a proclamar gustosamente nuestra fe y la verdad del Evangelio con firmeza y amor.

Que, apoyándonos en Dios y confiando en su gracia, nos esforcemos cada día por vivir en Cristo Jesús, que resucitó de entre los muertos, llevando en él un mensaje de vida nueva. Jesucristo ha resucitado hoy; es victorioso, y su victoria es nuestra. Por esta razón, cantamos ¡Aleluya! ¡Aleluya!

Por favor, tengan la seguridad de que los recordaré de una manera especial a usted y a su familia en mis oraciones. Que Nuestro Señor Resucitado derrame sus abundantes bendiciones sobre ustedes en Pascua y siempre.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Mons. Michael F. Burbidge
Obispo de Arlington

Write every other letter on the lines.
Then start with the A and go around again, writing every other letter.

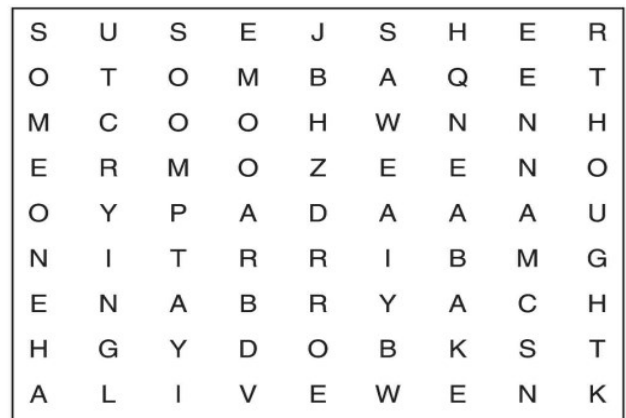

Later, Mary stood by the tomb crying. She thought someone had taken Jesus' body. A Man stood nearby. At first she thought it was the gardener. Then He said, "Mary." She knew who it was! It was Jesus! He was alive!
