Msgr. Bob Cilinski

"This poor widow put in more than all the others"
- Mark, 12:43

My dear parishioners,

The poor widow in today's gospel reading could not have imagined that her visit to the temple that day would be remembered by Christians for centuries. In one sense she gave little... only two coins, compared to the other contributors who gave a great deal more. The Lord remarks that the little she gave represented her very self. The Lord's emphasis is not on quantity but on quality. He praised her because she gave all.

She lived BIG! Not in the way of the world, but in the way of the widow who was extravagant in the way of giving the very last of what she had for God. She was like the poor Jesus who stripped Himself of glory to become poor for our sake that He might lead us to eternal riches. Extravagant!

Thanks to all parishioners for prayerfully considering your stewardship of "treasure" as we prepare for our annual offertory Commitment Sunday, November 24th. Your generosity allows us to do so much good.

Love and blessings,
Bob Cilinski

Dear Nativity Parishioners,

Thank you for hosting Msgr. Vaccari for the Mission Appeal for the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. As Pope Francis reminds us, "Every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ."

When we support the Missions both in prayer and financially we serve as missionaries ourselves. These generous gifts give strength and encouragement to the people served by the Catholic Near East Welfare Association and in missions around the world.

The proceeds from the collection have been received in the Mission Office in the amount of $25,000. Thank you for being our Partner in mission!

Monthly Sensory Mass | Sunday - November 10 At 1:00 pm - Nativity Catholic Church

In an effort to embrace and welcome the neurodiverse members of our community, Nativity Catholic Church is hosting a monthly Sensory Mass on the second Sunday of every month at the 1:00 pm Mass. All are welcome to attend! A special invitation is extended to any person in need of sensory accommodations.

A Sensory Mass requires a welcoming stigma-free environment and accommodations to help reduce over-stimulation and sensory overload. The Mass will include softer music, dimmer lighting, pictorial resources, and self-regulation tools for those with special needs. Families are encouraged to bring any regulation tool (noise reduction items, quiet fidgets, flexible seating items, weighted objects, etc.) that can support focused attention and provide comfort to a person so they can feel safe in their environment and they can better participate in the Holy Mass.

Pray the Pro-Life Rosary with Us!

When: Usually Fridays after Nativity's 7:30am Mass. Where: 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church. Join Nativity in peacefully praying the Pro-Life Rosary on the sidewalk in front of the Falls Church abortion facility for mothers in need and for the protection of human life. Contact rickloffredo@outlook.com if you'd like to join us!

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND!
 Proceeds from the annual Retirement Fund for Religious appeal enable the NRRO to distribute financial assistance to hundreds of religious communities each year. The majority of donations are distributed as Direct Care Assistance. Direct Care Assistance is a per capita distribution based on specified criteria, including level of need. Religious communities may apply annually for these funds, which can be used to help meet immediate eldercare needs or saved for long-term retirement expenses. Throughout the year, additional funding is allocated for retirement education and other programming.

Keys To Bioethics: Clear answers to bioethical challenges arising from scientific and technological progress <https://laityinvolved.org/project/keys-to-bioethics/>

“This is My Body: A Catholic Approach to Gender Dysphoria” by Jason Evert: Here is a brief summary of Evert’s National Eucharistic Congress speech (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YiDHNZ_tYLQ): “Let’s distinguish gender theory which is a set of ideologies from gender dysphoria is something individuals experience.” The secular world is telling Catholics that we have to choose between either affirming these impacted people in their views or abandoning them. However, as Catholics, we know that we cannot lie to them with false compassion because they deserve the truth and also they shouldn’t be rejected because every person has infinite value. Evert points to Pope Francis’ better “option of accompaniment where we walk with these individuals in truth and love... Pope Francis said: I asked myself if the so-called gender theory is not at the same time an expression of frustration and resignation that seeks to cancel out sexual difference because we no longer know how to deal with it... The removal of sexual difference in fact creates a problem not a solution.”

“When a child experiences gender dysphoria the studies are clear: 80 to 95% of the time as they go through puberty they will naturally come to identify with their biological sex. So about 90% of the time it resolves itself unless “gender affirmative care” intervenes.” Evert said that transitioning has four stages: (1) Social transitioning (change pronouns, restrooms, sports). (2) Administer puberty blocker drugs “to children as young as eight years old... these drugs can cause suicidal ideation and attempt... The United Kingdom just banned these drugs for minors.” (3) Inject with cross-sex hormones to get secondary sex characteristics, which sterilizes the child so “will never be able to have children... to keep up the look you become a pharmaceutical patient for the rest of your life.” (4) Surgery, which advocates call a “gender affirmative procedure”... one of the most common surgery is a bilateral mastectomy... Oakland California Children’s Hospitals is now doing double mastectomies for 12-year-old girls; throughout the state of Oregon now a girl can now at the age of 15 get a double mastectomy without her parents’ permission... if you follow all these individuals about 10 years after the procedure, the suicide rate climbs to 19 times higher than the general population; isolate out the female-to-male transitioners and you’re looking at a the suicide rate is 40 times more than the general population... 90% of people who commit suicide have a diagnosable mental health condition... These procedures... are making their bodies a false target of intervention.” Biology is not bigotry... Every single cell of the human body that has a nucleus is sex specific. That’s why you could never change your sex.”

“Our whole culture here from politics to pharmaceuticals to sports to the media is currently out to sea with this transgender moment, but what is about to hit our shores is an absolute tsunami of de-transitioners: they’re turning around... and winning lawsuits” like Keira Bell. Evert says, “the church can step in not with condemnation but with clarity. The church’s answer to this disintegration of man is an integrated vision of man John Paul the Great gave it to us in his Theology of the Body.”

NO HANDS BUT YOURS MINISTRY

No Hands But Yours is an original Nativity Ministry doing God’s work by serving those less fortunate members of His flock. We work distributing food, clothing, and personal items to the poor and homeless in DC and northern VA every Sunday morning, rain or shine.

We also have weekly trips into designated areas bringing Panera bread donations along with help from local food banks. Through the blessings of God, we have grown through our Nativity community and continue to do so. For more details visit the Nativity Parish website at <https://nativityburke.org/service/no-hands-but-yours/>. Families are also welcomed! A message from Nativity Creation Care Ministry Coming Soon! Fair Trade sales event in the Nativity Cafeteria on Saturday November 30 - Sunday December 1.

Your Nativity Creation Care Ministry is pleased to announce the annual Fair Trade sales event during Thanksgiving weekend. Fair Trade embodies the principles of Catholic Social Teaching including but not limited to, care for God’s Creation and the Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers. Fair trade promotes the use of reused, reclaimed and recycled materials, helping conserve, preserve and cultivate the environment so that resources are available for future generations.

Meant to be a long-term system, not short-term charity, Fair Trade works to make communities on all levels sustainable. Fair Trade Organizations are invested in the people they work with, helping them meet nutritional needs, get access to health care, receive financial training and more, depending on the needs of the community. In addition, Fair trade products celebrate the cultural diversity of communities around the world. Often, artisans use centuries-old techniques passed down from previous generations, incorporating traditional craft methods into stylish, unique products that protect their cultural heritage and allow you to enjoy the skill and beauty of their craft.

This event will offer beautifully crafted items ranging from jewelry and accessories to home goods, toys, clothing, food, and holiday items-- each has a story to tell. The Haitian metal art is particularly popular with Nativity parishioners. Handmade products make wonderful gifts and mean so much more than traditional mass-produced items. Consider meaningful holiday gifts this year and support fair trade, especially during these challenging times for the artisans! Creation Care is also looking for volunteers to assist shoppers at the sale for 2 hour time slots. Please see the sign-up genius on the church website under Fair Trade Market. For more information, contact Kim Young at NativityCreationCare@gmail.com.

MATRIMONY

Why does our parish have a Marriage Enrichment Ministry?

The Marriage Enrichment Ministry strengthens marriages in the Church and supports and accompanies engaged and married couples called to the holy vocation of marriage.

Our roots are grounded in the 2014-2015 Synods of Bishops on the Family and the apostolic exhortations “Amoris Laetitia” and “Familiaris Consortio,” the Pathways document addresses these concerns and calls for, among other things:

- Providing couples with effective and thorough preparation for sacramental marriage,
- using prayer and rituals to reinforce the need to partner with God to form a strong marriage, and
- providing ongoing support for recently married couples as they embark on marriage and family life.

Why attend events and programs?

First and foremost, to strengthen your marriage and your relationship with God. And, to help you accomplish that, you and your spouse will have the opportunity. . . . To spend dedicated time in prayer and reflection with each other. To hear encouraging testimonies from our speakers and each other. For fellowship with other married couples of faith.

SAVE THE DATE!!

The Knights of Columbus invite all the Children of Nativity Parish to join them in the Parish Cafeteria on Saturday morning, December 7th from 9:30AM to 11:00AM for fun, fellowship and a chance to meet and have breakfast with Santa.

There will be a continental breakfast, Christmas crafts and a little something from Santa for all boys and girls who attend. So that Santa knows you will be there, we request you let his elves know that you plan to attend; send them your family name, and the number of children and adults coming. Please email 24oedwyworkhard@gmail.com.

The Importance of Sunday Mass

As the body will die without food, the soul will expire without nourishment. As Catholics, that spiritual nourishment comes at the Sunday Eucharist. The Lord’s Day is essential for our faith. Make Sunday Mass the heart of your week.

Nativity's Supreme Halloween

Our celebration began early on October 31st, when Ms. Kelly and her administrative team surprised the staff by turning the Teacher's Lounge into a little cafe, serving coffee, tea, and the most whimsical donuts we have seen in quite a while! After lunch, we enjoyed classroom parties, crafts and games. The fun culminated in a parade around the outside of the school, returning through the front doors of the church to the applause of Monsignor Bob and his team – in-costume – handing out Halloween treats to us.

Nativity Creation Care Fair Trade Holiday Market

In the school cafeteria • 6400 Nativity Lane, Burke
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30 4:00-7:00 PM
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 1 8:00 AM-5:30 PM

We Believe...

People and the planet should not be exploited for the things we buy.

People should be paid fairly for their work.

Small, local businesses are the heartbeat of our communities.

Our everyday purchases can have a positive impact on the world.

Every product has a story.

Your purchase is an important part of the fair trade cycle.

Buying fair is an extension of our faith.

Fair Trade Winds will donate 10% of sales to Nativity Creation Care Sustainability and Garden programs.

Reusable fabric bags donated by Virginia Green Baggers—while supplies last.

LIVE YOUR FAITH. CONSUME WITH YOUR CONSCIENCE.

Our faith asks us to respect the dignity of work, God's people and His creation. Understanding the impact of our purchases and consumption helps ensure our choices don't harm others or the environment.

—Karen Kasmauski for CRS

JOIN US ON AN ETHICAL BUYING JOURNEY.

Fair Trade is an alternative way of doing business—one that builds equitable, long-term partnerships between consumers in North America and producers in developing regions. Fair Trade is endorsed as a means for sustainable development (it's not a hand out) by Catholic Relief Services, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops and by all major religions in the United States.

CALL TO ACTION FROM POPE FRANCIS

Fair Trade offers a powerful response to Pope Francis' challenge to "do something" from his World Peace Day Message in 2015. He condemned trafficking—the modern day slavery of 11 million men, women and children—and urged us to action.

Fair Trade products are free from exploitation. And the Fair Trade logo on a package assures just wages and safe working conditions, combating poverty.

Choosing fair trade is a prayerful decision. Pope Francis said, "We know that God will ask each of us: "What did you do for your brother? (cf. Gen 4:9-10). The globalization of indifference...requires all of us to forge a new worldwide solidarity and fraternity capable of giving them new hope and helping them to advance..."

ASK YOURSELF:

- Will my purchase affect positive change?
- Did making the product cause undue harm to the environment?
- Will the product make a positive contribution to my life/society as a whole?
- Who made the product and where is it from? What is their life like?

Llegó una pobre viuda
Autor: P. Raniero Cantalamessa, ofmcap
Sitio Web: P. Raniero Cantalamessa, ofmcap
1R 17, 10-16; Hebreos 9, 24-28; Marcos 12, 38-44

Un día, estando frente al arca del tesoro del templo, Jesús observa a los que allí echan limosnas. Se fija en una viuda pobre que deposita allí todo cuanto tiene: dos moneditas, o sea, la cuarta parte de un as. Entonces, se vuelve a sus discípulos y dice: «Os digo en verdad que esta viuda pobre ha echado más que todos los que echan en el arca del tesoro. Pues todos han echado de lo que les sobraba; ésta, en cambio, ha echado de lo que necesitaba todo cuanto poseía, todo lo que tenía para vivir».

Podemos llamar a este domingo el «domingo de las viudas». También en la primera lectura se relata a historia de una viuda: la viuda de Sarepta que se priva de todo cuanto tiene (un puñado de harina y algo de aceite) para dar de comer al profeta Elías.

Es una buena ocasión para dedicar nuestra atención a las viudas y, naturalmente, también a los viudos de hoy. Si la Biblia habla con tanta frecuencia de las viudas y jamás de los viudos es porque en la sociedad antigua la mujer que se quedaba sola está en mucha mayor desventaja que el hombre que se queda solo. Actualmente no existe gran diferencia entre ambos; es más, dicen que la mujer que se queda sola se las arregla, en general, mejor que el hombre en la misma situación.

Desearía, en esta ocasión, aludir a un tema que interesa vitalmente no sólo a los viudos y viudas, sino a todos los casados, y que es particularmente actual en este mes de difuntos. La muerte del cónyuge, que marca el final legal de un matrimonio, ¿indica también el final total de toda comunión? ¿Queda algo en el cielo del vínculo que unió tan estrechamente a dos personas en la tierra, o en cambio todo se olvidará al cruzar el umbral de la vida eterna?

Un día algunos saduceos presentaron a Jesús el caso límite de una mujer que había sido sucesivamente esposa de siete hermanos, y le preguntaron de quién sería mujer tras la resurrección de los muertos. Jesús respondió: «Cuando resuciten de entre los muertos, ni ellos tomarán mujer ni ellas maridos, sino que serán como ángeles en los cielos» (Marcos 12, 25). Interpretando de manera errónea esta frase de Cristo, algunos han sostenido que el matrimonio no tiene ninguna continuidad en el cielo. Pero con esta frase Jesús rechaza la idea caricaturesca que los saduceos presentan del más allá, como si fuera una sencilla continuación de las relaciones terrenas entre los cónyuges; no excluye que ellos puedan reencontrar, en Dios, el vínculo que les unió en la tierra.

De acuerdo con esta perspectiva, el matrimonio no termina del todo con la muerte, sino que es transfigurado, espiritualizado, sustraído a todos aquellos límites que marcan la vida en la tierra, como, por lo demás, no se olvidan los vínculos existentes entre padres e hijos, o entre amigos. En un prefacio de difuntos, la liturgia proclama: «La vida no termina, sino que se transforma». También el matrimonio, que es parte de la vida, es transfigurado, no suprimido.

Pero ¿qué decir a quienes tuvieron una experiencia negativa, de incomprensión y de sufrimiento, en el matrimonio terreno? ¿No es para ellos motivo de temor, en vez de consuelo, la idea de que el vínculo no se rompa ni con la muerte? No, porque en el paso del tiempo a la eternidad el bien permanece, el mal cae. El amor que les unió, tal vez hasta por poco tiempo, permanece; los defectos, las incomprensiones, los sufrimientos que se infligieron recíprocamente caen. Es más, este sufrimiento, aceptado con fe, se convertirá en gloria. Muchísimos cónyuges experimentarán sólo cuando se reúnan «en Dios» el amor verdadero entre sí y, con él, el gozo y la plenitud de la unión que no disfrutaron en la tierra. En Dios todo se entenderá, todo se excusará, todo se perdonará.

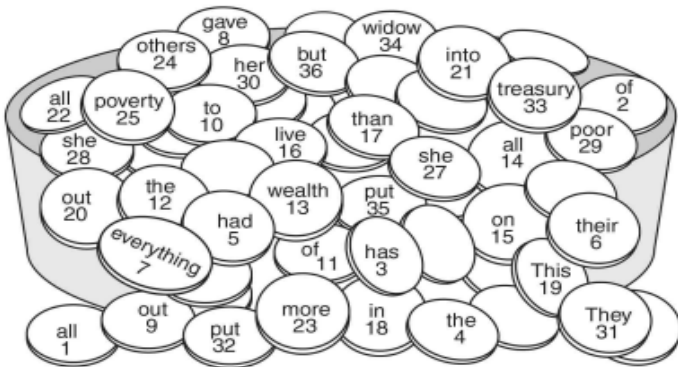

Se dirá: ¿y los que estuvieron legítimamente casados con varias personas? ¿Por ejemplo los viudos y las viudas que se vuelven a casar? (Fue el caso presentado a Jesús de los siete hermanos que habían tenido, sucesivamente, por esposa a la misma mujer). También para ellos debemos repetir lo mismo: lo que hubo de amor y donación auténtica con cada uno de los esposos o de las esposas que se tuvieron, siendo objetivamente un «bien» y viniendo de Dios, no se suprimirá. Allá arriba ya no habrá rivalidad en el amor o celos. Estas cosas no pertenecen al amor verdadero, sino a la limitación intrínseca de la criatura.

The Widow's Offering

Jesus said, "Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted in the marketplaces, and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such men will be punished most severely."
